

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

ONE DAY TRAINING COURSE

COURSE OVERVIEW

Project management skill is an essential skill to acquire for every professional working in any project environment.

The project could be any either it is an IT project of deploying a new software or building a new steel mill with an engineering team; the concepts will remain the same to follow during the course of time when you are working on that project.

COURSE BENEFITS

- 0 Understand importance of PM
- 0 Clearly define project objectives
- 0 Develop manageable project schedule
- 0 Scope creep & change control
- 0 Tools & techniques to manage project
- 0 Project Work Breakdown Structure
- 0 The change control process
- 0 Plan risk management
- 0 Risk Identification | Analysis | Response

ONE DAY | 0900 - 1700 HRS

USD 1,500.0 / SESSION

15 PARTICIPANTS

COURSE CONTENT

Definitions of project management
Focus and benefits of PM
Triple constraints & demands
Project life cycles
People and projects overview
The project manager ROLE.
The project sponsor / director
Client, project team, & stakeholders
People and projects in organisations
Initiating & developing project charter
Conducting stakeholder assessments

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Project managers, project engineers, project supervisors, project planning team members, project execution team members.

Professionals who wish to enhance their project management skill set.